

Wetaskiwin Mayor Proclaims April 28 as National Day of Mourning

April 24, 2019

(Wetaskiwin, Alberta) – City of Wetaskiwin Mayor Tyler Gandam proclaimed April 28, 2019 as National Day of Mourning in Wetaskiwin, Alberta during City Council’s regular meeting on Tuesday, April 23, 2019.

National Day of Mourning—also known as Worker’s Mourning Day—is a day to remember and honour those who were injured or lost their lives due to a workplace tragedy. To commemorate the occasion, all City flags will be lowered to half-mast on April 28.

“In 2018, 162 workers were injured or tragically lost their lives in a workplace setting within Alberta,” said Mayor Tyler Gandam. “April 28 is not only a day to remember all those who have been injured or killed on the job, but also a time to renew our commitment to improve health and safety in the workplace.”

The City of Wetaskiwin remains dedicated to maintaining the health and safety of all its employees and has a safety awards program recognizing staff who go above and beyond in ensuring the safety of their colleagues.
