

City flags lowered to honour loss of local firefighter

Saturday, July 17, 2021 (Wetaskiwin, Alberta) – The City of Wetaskiwin’s flags are being lowered today, July 17, to honour the recent loss of a member of the Wetaskiwin Fire Service from medical complications.

“This is a tremendous loss for our community and fire family,” stated Sue Howard, City Manager. “Our thoughts are with everyone impacted and the City stands with you all during this difficult time.”

“The Wetaskiwin Fire Service is deeply saddened by the loss of one of our own,” said Jamie Wilkinson, Fire Chief. “His dedication and devotion to the protection of our community will live on.”

The City’s flags will be at half-mast for the weekend. Anyone wishing to extend their condolences to the members of Wetaskiwin’s Fire Service are invited to send them to fireservices@wetaskiwin.ca.

-30-

Media contact:
Ren Goode, Communications Manager
City of Wetaskiwin

(p) 780.361.4417 (c) 780.335.4061
ren.goode@wetaskiwin.ca

