

Mayor Tyler Gandam Acclaimed as Vice President of Alberta Municipalities for One-Year Term

Friday, November 19, 2021 (Wetaskiwin, Alberta) – City of Wetaskiwin Mayor Tyler Gandam was acclaimed to the Alberta Municipalities’ Board of Directors as Vice President for Cities up to 500,000—for a one-year term—at their Annual General Meeting held Friday, November 19 at the Edmonton Convention Centre.

“I’m grateful for the opportunity to continue serving and representing cities up to 500,000 as a Director, and now as Vice President,” stated Mayor Gandam. “This opportunity helps to raise the profile of our City, as well as assist in further developing relationships with the provincial government.”

St. Albert Mayor Cathy Heron was elected as President of Alberta Municipalities. Mayor Gandam ran for election as her Vice President and was acclaimed to the position when Mayor Heron won the election for President.

Founded in 1905, Alberta Municipalities—formerly known as Alberta Urban Municipalities Association—represents Alberta’s cities, towns, villages, summer villages, and specialized municipalities, and advocated the interests of all its members to both the provincial and federal governments.

The 2021 Alberta Municipalities Convention was held November 17 to 19 in Edmonton, Alberta.
